FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

First straw in the fall quarter registration wind at Montana State University was apparent in the report of Homer Anderson, director of admissions, that admission applications from a total of 1,058 incoming and advanced students freshmen/had been accepted as of July 27. Nine-hundred and twenty-four freshmen have been accepted and 134 advanced students have been accepted so far. Both totals are up somewhat from last year. According to Anderson if the present trend continues, the University will have another record fall registration in 1962.
